

Sherry Williamson Confirmed to Office of Secretary

Sherry Williamson, Clerk of the Eleventh Court of Appeals in Texas, has been confirmed to the office of Secretary of the National Conference of Appellate Court Clerks.

Ms. Williamson was appointed as Clerk of the Eleventh Court of Appeals, Eastland, Texas, in 1995. Since starting her employment with the Court 42 years ago, she has worked in the positions of Deputy Clerk, Accountant, and Appellate Secretary.

Sherry has served as the Secretary of the National Conference of Appellate Court Clerks for 8 years, has served as the Assistant Editor of The Docket for 4 years, and served on the Executive Committee in 2008-2010. She is currently the Chair of the Communications Committee and has served on various other committees since she joined NCACC in 2001.

NCACC was established in 1973 with the objectives of improving the skills and knowledge of its members, promoting effective court administration, providing a forum for the exchange of ideas, and maintaining facilities for the dissemination of information concerning appellate court operations. Its membership is comprised of state, federal, and military appellate and Supreme Court clerks from the United States, District of Columbia, territories and possessions of the United States, and tribal appellate courts.
